Upcoming Workshops for Smaller, Rural and Tribal Communities

SGC and CCRH will be hosting AHSC workshops with our partners ELA and Enterprise Community Partners in Northern San Diego County, Santa Barbara County, and Riverside County. Workshops will focus on assisting rural, smaller communities, and American Indian Tribal Housing entities in preparing for upcoming rounds of the AHSC program.

These workshops are intended for developers, elected officials, public agencies, and American Indian tribal housing entities. Whether you're new to the program or if you just want to find out what's new in the program, this is a great opportunity for you and your team.

Please feel free to share with your staff, network, and partners.

SANDAG Accepting Public Comments on Draft RHNA Methodology

The San Diego Association of Governments has released draft methodology for the 6th Cycle Regional Housing Needs Assessment (RHNA) and will be accepting public comment until September 4. Last year, the SANDAG board voted to accept a determination from the State Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) that the region needs to plan for an additional 171,685 housing units during the next Housing Element Cycle (2021-2029). The methodology released this month will determine how to distribute the regional housing need throughout the region's 19 jurisdictions. The methodology will be heard at the September 6 meeting of the SANDAG Board of Directors from 9 a.m. to noon at the SANDAG Board Room, 401 B Street, 7thFloor, San Diego, 92101.

County of San Diego Community Needs Survey

FY 2020 - 2024 Consolidated Plan

The County of San Diego needs your input! Over the next five years, the County will be investing millions of dollars in affordable housing, homelessness prevention and services, and community services and amenities. Your voice will guide that investment and help create healthy, safe, and thriving communities in San Diego County!
