

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

19th Annual San Diego Affordable Housing & Community Development Conference

Thursday, October 14, 2010
Marina Village Conference Center
San Diego, California

This conference brings together developers, builders, operators, funders and supporters of affordable housing in San Diego County. We invite you to share your expertise with us at this conference as a workshop presenter or workshop convener. This conference focuses on sharing innovative approaches to developing and operating affordable housing and community facilities.

To the degree possible we would like to have the workshops focus on the collaboration and integration necessary to do affordable housing development and management in the future within the topic areas below. Think about all of the private and public firms that must work together and include them on the panel.

The primary audience is affordable housing developers, architects, lenders, service providers local government staff, and property managers.
