LISC San Diego Roundtable Series Presents

Funding Supportive Housing in San Diego: Where to find and Use the Resources that Transform Communities

Join this session to explore in detail the capital and operating funding available for affordable and supportive housing in California and the San Diego region, as well as the potential to partner with Health Plans who offer the Health Home benefit in the region. Presenters will discuss State supportive housing funding sources and NOFAs, along with a number of local NOFAs and resources including property prioritized for affordable/supportive housing development. Hear the latest details on the various funds and resources that make supportive housing successful and the current thinking about operating funding and support services.

Thank you for supporting SDHF in this past year. With your help, SDHF will continue to work to create more inspiring moments through advocating, informing, expanding the expertise, networking and building of coalitions throughout the region. Each contribution helps advance our mission of working as a coalition to promote the creation of quality affordable housing focused on lower income families and people in need.

All donations are tax deductible. Every dollar counts!

With a generous match from San Diego Interfaith Housing Foundation, your donation will be matched up to $2,500.
